Submission deadline is the 15th of the month for event announcements, articles, and artwork. Officers reports are due at officers meeting unless other arrangements are made beforehand.

This is The Tosspot, published by and for the members of the Barony of Unser Hafen. It is not an official publication of the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc. and does not delineate SCA policies. It is a supplement to the Outlandish Herald, not a substitute. It is available from the Chronicler for $0.75/copy or $7.00/year. [I'll take it in cash or check made payable to "SCA-Unser Hafen."]

From the Baron

Athbhliain faoi mhaise duit!

I hope the new year finds you in good health and spirits. I find that I have little to speak on, preach about or announce. Our fifth anniversary Dance Collegium is this month on the 29th. Please come and dance - the sotelty contest should prove quite entertaining all by itself! The Queen herself is to be at this year's ball so we shall have visiting dignitaries for whom to show off our best! Bring your dancing shoes, your pastries, your humor and your fun. I hope to see you there.

War is approaching in February, so it is time to fix up our badly battered armor and weapons and practice teamwork. Please read the Knight Marshal's report to find out where our remaining war practices are to be. Lord Gerald has indicated that he would be interested in running the whole weekend's food preparations again this year if enough people call and tell him that they would like him to. So if he does not volunteer to do it this year you can only blame yourself for not asking/begging him for this priceless service!

Speaking about fighter practice. Our indoor site's cost increased by 50% this year. We are taking a beating on it and may soon have to decide to reduce our usage or stop altogether. This is the largest indoor site in the North available on a regular basis and it would be a shame to lose it, but we have incurred over $600 in fees and only collected about $270 in donations in the last 3 months. We can't keep this up any longer. We can do more than fight here, it is huge and has more than enough room to hold dance, fencing, heavy weapons, and even classes. Please come and keep the fighters company with your own activities! (Sorry, end of sermon.)

I have decided that we should have the polling for my Taniste in April. This date was so that the group would have over two months to prepare for a known couple to replace your Baron. I am still planning on passing the coronets in July at Defender, I have just decided to step up the timetable for the polling. Anyone who has an opinion on my successors please write me a note or letter. Here are the couples that have expressed interest in being my successors and I feel that any of them would be worthy successors. Soon we must decide. At this point I hold no favorites, but in the coming months I will be meeting with each of them and with many of you and will confer with you on who I feel would seem to be the best at that time.

Titus and Llamrei
Medhbh and Aedhan
Gerald and Madeleine
Tuman and Rashiqah

By March we will all get together and discuss our final decision, then in April we will poll for the Crown.

Fad saol agat,

Kevin

Officer's Reports

Unto the Populace of Unser Hafen, Rosalind of WellMark greets you.

For those who have heard rumblings of "doomsday" approaching, the world is not ending (to my knowledge, anyway). This is the time of year when the officers are preparing their annual reports called "Domesday Reports" to their Kingdom level officers. The word is taken from the 'census' ordered by William the Conquerer after the conquest of England to ascertain the population and wealth of his new land. For some, this is fairly simple and only involves a brief summary of happenings. For others, like the Treasurer, this is a very time-consuming process. Please have patience for our officers through the end of January and especially treat our Lord Tamlene well. He will be spending many hours slaving over the financial forms for the next month. Also, if you are holding any checks from the Baronial coffers which you haven't cashed, do so now. Likewise with any checks you need written...let him know now.

Our December gathering was held at the Baron's Keep and much armoring, eating, playing, talking, writing, sewing, and cooking was done. For those who missed it, do try to make the next one. The chivalry discussion was very interesting and I'm certain will keep people thinking about it for quite awhile. One observation I've had since then is that it is much easier to be chivalrous in the SCA when it is just an extension of your modern life. Perhaps this is a question we should all ask ourselves... how am I doing outside the SCA on integrity, respect for others, etc.? I would also like to personally thank The Honorable Lady Llamrei for sharing entries in her personal journal with the group. I found her words to be very thought provoking and sincere.

Now is a good time for all of us to set some goals for the coming year. For those who would like to become more involved in the Barony, you might think about learning the duties of an office. Ask any officer to explain their office and if you think you could contribute in that area, volunteer to become a deputy. A deputy doesn't always assume the office! Some offices have 2 or 3 deputies and they are needed to help with the load. If your goal is to assume an office, you need to work as a deputy in order to learn the ropes. Another goal we can all think about is preparation for Estrella War in Phoenix. And an extension of that is preparing for camping season in general...I have my leftover list from last year to finish this year.

Please check the calendar carefully as there are some changes in regular fighter practice dates. Also, if you don't have reservations in yet for Dance Collegium, better give Sir Titus a call before you miss out.

In Service to His Excellency, Unser Hafen, and the Outlands,

Rosalind

Thus ends my report,
In service to His Excellency,

Diedre

Unto the gentle populace of Unser Hafen Come greetings from the Knight Marshal

Greetings!

Well, as war steadily approaches, those of us which are planning to go must prepare our armor and weapons, then keep everything in good repair until we actually leave. Here follows a few interesting facts about this years war.

Weapons :

Punch daggers will be allowed

Pole arms will be allowed up to 12 feet long

Fiberglass poles must be capped on both ends.

For those of you who are not familiar with Punch daggers, they are short weapons attached to the shield or fore-arm. They hit extremely hard since they transfer all of the force from a blow directly into the head of the weapon. In addition, if attached to a shield they have the added weight of the shield behind them. Be aware of these so as to not be caught off guard.

Other Stuff :

Volunteers (for things like gate duty and such) will be able to direct a portion of the rebate planned to the group of their choice. This would be a great way to help fund our fighting site. If you can spare a short while, donate your time, and make some money for the barony!

War practices will be held in Caerthe on the 9th and 23rd of January, and in Unser Hafen on the 16th.

For those of you who are less violently inclined, Lady Madeleine de la Rochelle will be hosting a Scribes symposium at fighter practice. If you are interested, she will be providing beginners kits for a very low price. She will be teaching beginning Calligraphy and be available for more advanced questions.

Tuman

Unto the good gentles of Unser Hafen, greetings!

Unto the good gentles of Unser Hafen, greetings!

To start my report, I'd like to announce some good news - Loarin, and Kari were both authorized in single point at the war practice in Caerthe in December. That brings the total number of authorized fencers in Unser Hafen up to five. In celebration and acknowledgement of the growth of fencing here, our baron has decided that His Whim in January is to holding a fencing tournament. So, on January 30, THERE WILL BE A BARON'S WHIM FENCING TOURNAMENT at the regular fighter practice site/time.

This past Twelfth Night (or upcoming 12th Night if you get this newsletter before Jan. 8) marked the "coming out" of the Blue School of Caerthe. The Blue School is a fencing school designed to promote fencing in the Outlands and to create a formalized atmosphere for the teaching of defence. The Blue School is modelled after period fencing schools which were regional in nature. As individual baronies/shires acquire a large enough fencing population, they are encouraged to form their own school.

Instructors for the Blue School can be identified by blue baldrics. Currently, anyone can receive instruction from members (be they instructors or not). Actually, it is the responsability of members to teach fencing when necessary and for instructors to make themselves available to teach whenever asked. It is also the responsability of all members to be curteous, chivalrous (both on and off the field), and to bring honor to the school. It may sound trite, but the intended atmosphere is truly "all for one, one for all."

If you have any other questions or input about the Blue School, please contact myself or Lord Raven of Caerthe.

As a final note, there is plenty of fencing at Estrella War. If you are planning on going, don't forget your membership card, authorization card, and, of course, your epee!

And now a word for our Chronicler....

Hello and Happy New Year everyone. Sorry this Tosspot is so much later than usual. The Holiday season was a little busy for me. Hopefully I've managed to exterminate all the typing, scanning, and other errors to make up for my tardiness. Please note that the December Tosspot had one critical error in it. The edible copy of yourself and/or friends should be 3" to 4", not 6". See page 20 for the article. Well, see you around.

In service to His Excellency and the Barony,

Robin of Bristol

Greetings unto the populace of Vnser Hafen:

I hope all of you enjoyed the Christmas Season ...I have a couple of notes on ongoing projects.

GOOD NEWS! The Colorado State University Bookstore will be stocking the hunt mitchell nibs in at least two sizes for the next semester. It will be accompanied by a display of historical callgraphy scripts which I created for them. They routinely stock Higgins Eternal Black ink for those who wish to restock. The CSU Bookstore also has Strathmore regular drawing paper in pads of various sizes; the wire binding is annoying but the paper works nicely for scrolls. I have tested the new FW acrylic inks, which come in wonderful colors and are supposedly lightfast to varying degrees. They have acceptable body for most uses, but you might want to add some gum arabic for fine work.

Also, I have persuaded Stone lion Bookstore in Fort Collins to stock a few copies of Marc Drogin's Medieval Calligraphy book (paperback/inexpensive).

For better quality paper (Fabriano 70 lb, Archer's 90 lb hot press) it is still necessary to go to Art Hardware. They are also the source for a good selection of water colors and gouache in tubes.

Please patronize these local merchants when you get the chance and let them know that calligraphers/illuminators buy more than just nibs. If they see us as a source of income we might get them to continue stocking the items that we need.

NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS: The Banner Project is still about half-finished. We would appreciate those of you who took material to either return the material with apologies to Lady Terri or complete them in time for the Dance Collegium. There will be a wall-hanging prize at collegium for those of you who need some incentive to finish these. My thanks once again to those of you who HAVE turned in your banners.

Happy new year! I look forward to seeing you all at Dance Collegium.

Cala
Fo V.

Minister of Arts & Sciences

Greetings to the Populace of Unser Hafen -

I have been the Major Domo of the Server's Guild for nearly three years. I believe it is time for me to step down at Dance Collegium and allow new people to continue the guild. One of the benefits of the guild is that you get to work with the cooks and often get to taste the feast before anyone else does! If you are interested in this guild, please contact me at (303) 495-1317.

Yours in the Service of the SCA,

Lady Anastazia Winogrodzka

Greetings and happy 12th night from the quartermaster. There has been a lot of items lost over the year. I have my list and I have been checking it twice, to see who's been naughty or nice. There will be items to buy at dance collegium, for any article that has been lost for a year. Also, anybody who recognizes anything on my list please call me at 221 - 0850 .

One final note is that a few items might have been packed away in the good gentle's rush to leave the sight at lords of light and darkness. And that they might not realize that they have the items. I myself seldom check my feast gear box until the next time I need it. So, if you find any items that have runaway from it's master, please call me and I'll see that it is returned.

In your service:

A note from the acting Chiurgeon:

I have contacted THL Jessica, the Kingdom Chiurgeon, and I found out that the office of group chiurgeon as such does not exist. Chiurgeons are warranted at large by the Kingdom and they report to the Kingdom on events at which they serve as chiurgeon-in-charge. However, a chiurgeon may do most of their support for a specific group, and that is what I intend to do. I am in the process of doing the paperwork to get warranted, and I am currently carrying around the Baronial first aid kit. I will see to it that the kit makes it to fighter practice and most events, but let's see that we don't need it. I am certified in CPR and first aid, and I hope I will never have occasion to practice either one. If you need help or are interested in the Chiurgeon's guild, please contact me. Fighters, please remember that stretching and warm-up are very important in cold weather to prevent pulls and tears. Those who don't fight much except for the war, please start getting into condition now!

In Service,

Llamrei

FIGHTERS! FIGHTERS! FIGHTERS!

And other interested parties - for those who enjoyed the Chivalry discussion at Baron's Yule and for those who missed it, we will be having another one on January 16 at 6:30pm at Sir Kevin's house. This discussion will focus specifically on chivalry relative to the fighting arts in the SCA, the rules and SCA fighting hierarchy. All are welcome to come agter fighter practice, throw in a couple $ for pizza and share fighting ideals.

For more information call:

THL Llamrei	Sir Kevin
490-2936	221-0850

Sir Kevin's house, for those who haven't been there, is at 1500 W. Prospect. It's the big yellow house on the cornew of Prospect and Lunnwood. Please use the side door.

Help! Help! We have lost a priceless photo album! The last place we saw it was at the Baronial Birthday Party. It has a tan vinyl cover and is filled with lots of pictures of fighting and of Llamrei and Titus. With it was also a manila envelope full of loose pictures from Catherine Clatworthy. We have been to the Unitarian Church and there is no sign of it, so we think it may have gone home with one of the helpful folk who cleaned up after the event. If you know anything about it, please call Llamrei and Titus at 490-2936.

BLACKSMITHING GUILD

The Blacksmithing Guild is having regular open smithing once each month, usually on the second Saturday. This month we will be meeting along with the "Meeting of the Guilds" (see elsewhere in the Tosspot). Please inquire if directions are needed.

Meetings will begin at 9:30 and end when we are tired. Instruction is available. Bring safety goggles, gloves, and old clothes (mundane work clothes recommended unless you have suitable garb).

No level of skill is needed, just some enthusiasm!

Please call if you would also like to smith at another time.

Thorfinn Greybeard	667-1284
Master Garwed Cadburiensis	353-8456

From the Equestrian Guild,

We have one of these now! A number of us who have horses have gotten together at last and have made a few plans. We have been in touch with the Kingdom Equestrian Guild as well and have gotten information about insurance and special rules, of which there are quite a few. Right now we are working on our equipment and horse barding; in a couple of months when the weather warms up a little, we are planning to get together one Saturday a month to practice. There are basically two categories of equestrian activities: games and just riding, which can include trail rides, processionals and dressage. The games are mostly training exercises for knights, such as the quintain, ring jousting, tent-pegging and spear throwing, and require a little more expertise. We are hoping to have horses at the Baronial Investiture at Defender this summer. If you are interested in equestrian activities and the history of horsemanship and horse equipment, please call Llamrei at 490-2936. It is helpful but not necessary to have your own horse, and experience is not necessary. We could use help making horse barding!

In Service,
Llamrei

University of Caerthe

The saga continues -- this month Sir Titus Claudius Severus and Master Demetrios Bibliophilos join forces to tell us about the Eastern Roman Empire. Come hear about the politics that made "Byzantine" a part of the language, and what Procopius said about the infamous Empress Theodora in his Secret History. No less interesting are the battles, especially those led by Justinian's chief general, Belisarius. This talk will cover the period from the Fall of Rome in 476 A.D. to the death of the Emperor Justinian in 565 A.D.

We will meet at 7:30 P.M. on the fourth Wednesday of the month, January 26, at the home of Amelia von Altburg - 9901 East Evans Avenue, #28D, Denver. All are encouraged to attend. Period garb is optional, but appreciated. For further information, call Lady Amelia, 750-0180, or Master Robin Vinehall, 444-5004. If you live in Unser Hafen, you can call Sir Titus, 490-2936. If you live in Dragonsspine, you can call Master Demetrios, 591-5281.

Failte ui Cheallaigh to the barony from it's insipid (insensate? insouciant? incipient ? yeah, that's it, incipient) canton, where if we cannot spell it we flail away until we get something close. So how was your New year's party? Yes, it it; nice to be home for the holidays. Luckily crooning had not yet been invented or our noble hero would have been even more miserable. Allergicus Udderus was exiled from Ireland by Calpurnius Patricus (Saint Patrick to you Baptists out there). He sojoumed in Scotland. It was not without solace, the Scots did invent whiskey after all, but it was not the island of heroes. Allergicus wrested a living from the sea as navigator and shipwright, "Oill paint any sheep any coolor fer 29.95." This was not a successful business. Scotsmen did not understand Irish accents and did not want their sheep painted. So he mostly spent his time hauling cargo and passengers around the Irish and North Christianity was continuing its remake of Irish culture. After the passing of Patricus the work was continued by Brendan of Clonfert. Churches, monasteries and schools sprang up. Libraries were compiled and great literature was [illegible]ated. All this left Allergicus unmoved, but weekly collections were something he could approve of enthusiastically. Brendan was a man with wanderlust. He traveled to the Hebrides, Wales, Brittany and Scotland spreading the gospel and establishing monasteries.

On one such trip he hired Allergicus' ship, the Millennium Cowthief, for passage across the North Channel from Far Head (in Ulster) to Scotland. It is a short passage. You can see across it, assuming that you are not blind drunk, that is. Brendan had heard about Allergicus from Calpernius Patricus. But Brendan was a more forgiving type. After all, who could make a mistake on a journey like this? Mistake there was, nonetheless. Perhaps it was the curse of Dido (Carthaginian curses have a rather long half life). Perhaps it was a freak of nature. Perhaps Allergicus decided on a spur-of-the-moment side trip to a VII-XI for beer.

Wind and current bore them into strange realms where none had gone before (they did go boldly ...). It was a long journey, often punctuated by Brendan's exclamation, "No, that way, stupid!", and Allergicus' counterpoint, "Trust me I know where I'm going". Many lands they chanced upon were later claimed by famous captains, but they had better press agents. At last they came to the long coastline of densely forested land. The inhabitants, contrary to our hero's assurances ("Trust me, they're sassinaks...") looked nothing like Scotsmen. They were brown skinned and lived in long wooden lodges. Brendan, tried beyond limits, realized he would never get home, much less Scotland, with our spiflicated hero navigating. So he threw Allergicus overboard and turned the ship back for Ireland.

Brendan returned to Ireland where he took a sabbatical to recover. He told his sad tale to brothers in a monastery. This had two consequences. First, everyone realized that Brendan must have had the patience of a saint to deal with such adversity. Good press is very important when you are thinking of posterity. Secondly, the account of his voyages was written down and came to us as the Celtic epic Navigatio Brendani. They left out references to Allergicus, who was after all a pagan. But we know it was Allergicus Udderus who was prime mover in this, and he who (dare we say it?) discovered America.

So we leave you again, thanking you for a bard's dispensation. May your fields be wide and the landfill located next to someone else's property.

Out All Night

In the flickercandle glow of afterdusk,
The visiondream remembers me again.
I fill my cup from neverempty flask.

I smell the sweetness of the midnightmusk
As mistydapples glimmersoft the rain
In the flickercandle glow of afterdusk.

The risingwax of Marblemoon's new mask
Illuminelights the heather as I drain--
And fill my cup from neverempty flask.

I watch for them, my horn poised like a tusk,
To let the mead run trickledown my veins
Into flickercandle glows of afterdusk.

Where nowagain the faeriefolk will ask
To dwindledance while passingtime we spend,
And fill our cups from neverempty flask.

By dawningtime, the horn is emptyhusk.
And ashescoal spreads yestermidnight stains
Of the flickercandle glow of afterdusk,
That filled my cup from neverempty flask.

This artwork by Melisende Barlais d'Outremer was received back in February during the cover art contest. It had not been forgotten, but been awaiting a suitable time and suitable space in the Tosspot to be the subject of a contest of its own. The person who comes up with the best caption for this drawing will get a one year subscription to the Tosspot. I (Robin) will be choosing a judge to make the decision. When a suitable caption has been chosen, it and this art will appear on the Tosspot's cover. The deadline for caption is at Unser Hafen's fifth Dance Collegium on January 29, 1994. Good luck.

St. Brigid's Day in Caer Galen
"Make Love and War"

February 12, 1994

Join us for a weekend of revelry in true Caer Galen Style! St. Brigid's Day offers something for everyone!

The festivities will begin at 12:00 noon with a LOVE REVEL. Be prepared for games to challenge the wit and contests to stimulate the soul (and possibly other body parts). Dancing, bardic arts, board games, and perhaps a round or two of that perennial favourite, Caer Galen Musical Chairs, will be the order of the day. Competitions will include Best Performance of a Romantic Song, Wittiest Compliment, and Most Flowery Seduction Speech. Prepare your tongues to be at their most glib - appropriate prizes will be awarded! At last report Their Majesties were planning to attend - if they so will, there will be Court sometime during the afternoon.

At 5:00 pm a delectable FEAST will be served. This incredible bounty will be prepared by the redoubtable Lady Brigit O'Breslin (no relation to the Saint herself). The menu, which features dishes served at the Coronation of King Henry IV of England, follows herewith:

First Remove	Smoked Oysters
Cold Course	Artichokes and Mushrooms a la Alexandre
	Figs, Dates stuffed with Marzipan, Pomegranates, and Apples
	Lobster and Rice
	Smoked Eggs
	Breads and Butters
Second Remove	Lombardy Quiche
	Gilded Chicken and Meatballs
	Slit Sops (a vegetable soup)
Third Remove	Honey Saffron Quiche
	Roast Meat with Crisps
	Buttered Greens with Toast

After the feast, the event will move to the Guild Theatre, where the curtain will rise at 8:00 pm for The Upstart Crow Theatre Company's performance of HENRY IV, PART 1, by Mr. Wm Shakespeare. We have bought out the House for this performance. At the Intermission hot spiced cider and desserts will be served. As part of this, there will be a competition and since we never do anything here with subtlety, it shall be a BLATANCY COMPETITION. Prepare your most blatant subtlety and submit it to the discerning judges (that is, all persons present). Rules for the competition: 1. There is no Rule One. 2. The Saint's Whim is that Chocolate is Period.

On Sunday, February 13, there will be a WAR PRACTICE. This is the last weekend before Estrella, and therefore the last opportunity to hone your fighting skills. The site is currently under negotiation, and will be announced, with map, in the February OH. His Majesty strongly encourages fighters to attend.

REVEL/FEAST SITE: First Congregational Church, 1128 Pine Street, Boulder CO

THEATRE SITE: The Guild Theatre, 4840 Sterling Drive, Boulder CO

Maps to all sites will be published in the February Outlandish Herald.

FEES:	Site:	$5.00	Choose play only,feast and revel only, revel only, or all three!
	Feast:	$5.00
	Play:	$5.00

Feast and theatre performance are limited to 60 persons each, so make your reservations early. CUTOFF FOR RESERVATIONS IS SATURDAY, JANUARY 29 please contact the autocrat for availability after that date. AUTOCRAT(S) Baron Ioseph of Locksley and Baroness Cherie Ruadh MhicRath of Locksley (Joe and Cher Bethancourt) P.O. Box 35190, Phoenix AZ 85069, (602) 938-7124. There are sub-autocrats for site, gate, volunteer coordination, merchants, Laurel prize tourney, queens' tea, A&S classes, security, rapier, chirurgeons, archery, heraldry and grand court. The site location of these autocrats will be posted at the main gate. Merchants can probably camp with their stuff, must have visible fire extinguisher, pre-assigned site, no blanket merchants, roving pass-the-hat entertainers encouraged; contact Magdalena (Maggie Barker) 190 W. Coolidge #1, Phoenix AZ 85013.

Fees: $30.00, arriving Wednesday or Thursday; $25.00, arriving Friday-Sunday ($5.00 member discount). Children will be free. Cash only!

Lawbreakers will be evicted. Site does not allow loaded firearms, drugs or glass containers. Security wants to be informed if attendees are also mundane law-enforcement officers, just in case. Animals must be on a leash or taken to the pound, children must be with adults. Each tent must have its own fire extinguisher kept outside the tent in plain sight.

Photo competition: 4x6 to 8xlO unmatted, B&W or color, enter one to five photos, not obviously posed or staged, taken within the past three years at an SCA event (no mundanes in); "the photo should say 'this is the SCA' without any caption or description!" You must be witting to release the photos to "be scanned and used in future newsletters and other areas of interest." There will be prizes and the best entries will go into the permanent display book. Contact Mark Chapman, 2420 Gilbert, Missoula MT 59802, (406) 549-9934

Volunteers might win prizes from drawings (something familiar to Outlanders), and there is also a plan to rebate some of the profits from the event to groups within and without Atenveldt. As volunteers sign up for tasks eligible under this program, they name the SCA account (kingdom, local group, office) they wish to have their share go to. Those who wish to volunteer are asked to sign on as soon as possible to make the coordination of tasks easier. Some people might be assigned to be coordinators for their home areas. Write or call: Duchess Lyn of Whitewolfe (Linda Scott) 2342 N. Edgemere, Phoenix AZ 85006 (602) 252-2513.

Laurels Prize Tourney and Queen's Tea, 2 to 4 pm Feb. 20. Cooks can show off edibles, performers will find an appreciative audience. Non-Laurels may bring works (in progress or completed) to sit with, and Laurels will stroll through, offer hints, encouragement, and maybe tokens or gifts.. No entry fees, no losers, nourishing for everyone. Laurels Prize Tourney autocrat: Mistress Varia (Mimi Altree) 1016 Sheridan St., Phoenix AZ 85006, (602) 254-1525 before 10:00. Queen's Tea: Dame Jocelyn (Josi Ingram), 2020 N. 32nd St. #210, Phoenix AZ 85008, (602) 267-1244.

REMINDER

COMBAT WAIVER APPLICATION

The new rule on membership for combat is:

As of 1 January 1994, all authorized participants in SCA combat and related activities will need to:

a) Be current paid members of the Society, AND

b) Have valid combat waivers on file with the Membership Services Office.

This requirement was adopted at the January 1993 Board meeting, but the supporting procedures took somewhat longer than expected to be implemented. The text of the combat waiver was approved at the April 1993 Board meeting, and appears on membership forms dated "Revised 8-93" or later. The rule applies to armored combat, period fencing, combat archery, marshalling, scouting, and banner-bearing in combat, as well as service as a chirurgeon or water-bearer within the lines of a battle scenario. Current members who intend to take part in any of these activities after the first of January should fill out the new waiver and request replacement membership cards from the Registry now. The cards are free. Non-member participants must join - with valid waivers - by 1 January 1994.

SOCIETY FOR CREATIVE ANACHRONISM, INC.
WAIVER OF LIABILITY AND AGREEMENT TO MEDIATE OR ARBITRATE DISPUTES

I, _____ (print legal name), as a condition of membership in the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc. (SCA), do hereby waive any claim for liability for any injury to myself or damage to my property I may receive by reason of participating in martial arts or other activities or events sponsored or arranged by SCA. I am aware that SCA activities are potentially dangerous and can result in serious harm. I agree to follow all SCA rules or directions of SCA officials regarding equipment, participation or personal safety and voluntarily accept all risks associated therewith.

In the event of a dispute arising out of my participation in any SCA-sponsored activity, I agree to work through the internal dispute resolution procedures of the SCA. If these procedures do not lead to the resolution of the dispute, I agree to submit it to binding arbitration in accordance with the rules for commercial arbitration of the American Arbitration Association (AAA), with three arbitrators, at least two of whom must be SCA members (one chosen by myself and the other by the other party, and the two of them to select the third.) The arbitration may take place wherever the parties mutually agree, but will be in San Francisco, California if they do not agree otherwise, and in any case the laws of the state of California will apply. During arbitration, either party will be entitled to discovery pursuant to the procedures available in litigation in California.

THE UNDERSIGNED AFFIRMS THAT HE OR SHE HAS READ AND UNDERSTOOD THIS STATEMENT, AND AGREES THAT THIS IS A WAIVER OF ALL CLAIMS ARISING FROM PARTICIPATION IN EVENTS SPONSORED BY SCA TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW.

SIGNATURE OF PARENT OR GUARDIAN (IF APPLICANT IS A MINOR)

Note-parental signature binds both the parent and the minor to the terms of this agreement, but does not authorize participation by a minor in armored martial arts, period fencing, marshalling, archery, scouting, or banner-bearing in combat. A separate parental consent and waiver form is required to authorize a minor to participate in any of these activities.

unser hafen regular events

Fighter Practice has moved indoors for the winter to the CSU Fieldhouse. The cost of the site has doubled so donations to cover the costs are appreciated. Also we only have the site from 3pm to 6pm on Sundays. We have to be COMPLETELY out by 6:00pm exactly, not SCA time. This includes all people, armor, and other miscallaneous stuff.
PLEASE NOTE - Fighter practice will not be held every sunday in January and February due to preparations for the upcoming Estrella War. Please see calander on page 3 for the dates at CSU and other locations

Dance Practice has changed format starting in November. Only the first half hour (7-7:30) will be spent on teaching basic dance steps and running through the dances to be learned. Request dances will have no formal instruction. We are limited to the gym, the large tiled room, the kitchen, and the bathrooms. All other portions of the building are off limits.

Archery Practice has change times to 12-2pm on Sundays. The site is the same, so if the weather looks questionable call Titus. Call him if you need directions as well.
